Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exemptions) Order 1975

This post is covered by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 because it is a post which involves working directly with children or young people. The [school/trust] is legally obligated to process a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check before making appointments to relevant posts. The DBS check will reveal both spent and unspent convictions, cautions, and bind-overs as well as pending prosecutions, which are not “protected” under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975.

The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website :

For schools with pupils aged 8 and below, insert:

If you have lived or worked outside of the UK in the last 5 years, the [school/trust] may require additional information in order to comply with 'safer recruitment' requirements. If you answer 'yes' to the question above, we may contact you for additional information in due course.

PLEASE NOTE;

- If your application is successful, prior to taking up your post, you will be required to undergo a Formal Disclosure process through the Disclosure and Barring Service (previously CRB). This will require you to complete a separate DBS application form and to provide a range of more than one piece of documentary evidence of your identity.
- Although a criminal record involving offences against children is likely to debar you from appointment of this type of post, the existence of other criminal convictions will not necessarily be a bar to employment.
- Any criminal record information arising out of the disclosure process will be discussed with you before any final decision is made about your employment.
- It is a criminal offence to apply for or accept a position (paid or unpaid) working with children if you are excluded from such work by virtue of a court order or exclusion by the DBS.
- Copies of the school's policy on the employment of ex-offenders, the DBS Code of Practice and the school's policy on criminal records checks are available on request.
- Any data processed as part of the DBS check will be processed in accordance with data protection regulations and the School's privacy statement. The school does not keep copies of DBS certificates. If the school does so the copy will not be retained for any more than 6 months.
